EVENT: Wall Magazine

DATE: 03.05.2023

ORGANISED BY: Department of English

The Department of English at Domkal Girls' College organized a captivating wall magazine exhibition, aptly titled 'Writing on the Wall' on May 3, 2023, showcasing the literary prowess of Victorian Women Writers.

The wall magazine was inaugurated by the Principal, Dr Alak Kumar Das in the presence of faculty and students and spoke about the academic value of this activity and lauded the efforts of the students. The wall magazine, strategically placed in a prominent location within the college premises, featured a visually appealing layout adorned with Victorian-era aesthetics. The careful curation of content by the students provided a glimpse into the lives and works of influential women writers from the 19th century. From the Brontë sisters to Elizabeth Gaskell, the exhibition illuminated the significant contributions of these writers in shaping Victorian literature. Each section of the magazine delved into the unique writing styles, societal influences, and thematic concerns of these literary trailblazers.

Notably, the wall magazine served as an educational resource, bridging the gap between academic curriculum and extracurricular activities. Students were encouraged to explore beyond the prescribed texts, fostering a deeper appreciation for the diverse voices that emerged during the Victorian era. The event sparked conversations among students, creating an intellectual buzz within the college community.

Furthermore, the initiative demonstrated the department's commitment to promoting gender inclusivity and recognizing the often-overlooked contributions of women in literature. By focusing on Victorian Women Writers, the wall magazine subtly challenged traditional narratives and underscored the importance of diversifying literary studies.

In conclusion, the Department of English at Domkal Girls' College succeeded in creating a thought-provoking and visually appealing wall magazine that celebrated the legacy of Victorian Women Writers. The event not only enriched the academic environment but also encouraged a renewed appreciation for the timeless literary treasures crafted by these remarkable women.
